Monday, July 1*ſt*, 1745. [Numb. 588]

NEW-YORK.

The Speech of His Excellency the Honourable GEORGE CLINTON, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York and the Territories thereon depending in America, Vice-Admiral of the ſame, and Vice-Admiral of the White Squadron of His Majeſty's Fleet, to the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, [at their Diſſolution.]

IN my Speech at the opening of this Seſſion, I recommended to you many Particulars, which I thought of abſolute Neceſſity to be immediately provided for; and have ſince, by ſeveral Meſſages and Papers ſent you from Time to Time, as Occaſion offered, renewed my Inſtances as to ſeveral of them, in order to excite you to a Conduct worthy of their Importance; and ſince it ſeems by the Minutes of your Proceedings, as if you were coming to a Concluſion, and that you have done the Utmoſt that there is any Probability you will do; I can no longer forbear expreſſing my Sentiments of your Conduct.

After the Diſreſpect ſhewn, by omitting to give an Anſwer to my Speech, I was apprehenſive I could expect but little Regard to be paid to what I had ſaid; though I propoſed nothing but what immediately related to his Majeſty's Service, and the Intereſt and Security of the Province.

The Protection of our Frontiers in the County of Albany, was what I could not doubt every One had much at Heart, that had conſidered the Conſequence of them; and would be of Opinion, that ſuitable Proviſion ought of Neceſſity to be made to that End, with the utmoſt Diſpatch: Therefore, not ſo much regarding Ceremony (however requiſite and decent) as Matters more ſubſtantial, I have withheld from you Nothing which might enlighten you in that Reſpect, eſpecially touching the late Commotions amongſt our Indians, and the Intrigues of the Enemy carrying on amongſt them.

I have ſignified to you, over and over again, that it is proper in Time of War, that I ſhould have more frequent Interviews with the Six Nations, (which even in Time of Peace have been uſual every other Year) in order to renew the Treaties with them; and there is no other Way of doing it to Purpoſe (as I can conceive) than by making them Preſents, and ſuch at this Time as may be ſufficient to allay their preſent Diſquietudes, and preſerve them in good Temper, firm and ſteady to the Britiſh Intereſt: What Regard has been paid to my Importunities on this Head, may be collected from not making Proviſion for it: Nor are (it ſeems) the erecting Forts or Block-houſes, or the Maintenance of Scouts, to watch the Motions of the Enemy in thoſe Parts, Matters of Weight in your Eſtimation: And therefore, through your Careleſſneſs and Improvidence, we muſt hazard the Seduction of the Six Nations; and our Northern Frontiers, for the preſent, remain naked and open to the Incurſions and Inſults of our declared Enemies, and their Indians: Our Chriſtian Out-Settlers muſt either deſert their Plantations, and retire to Beggary and Want, or continue daily expoſed to their mercileſs Barbarity: A moſt cruel Neceſſity! This I have intimated to you, was moſt likely to be the Conſequence, if proper and ſeaſonable Care were not taken to prevent it.

That many of the Chriſtians ſettled towards our Frontiers Northward from Albany, have been much alarmed at the late ſuſpicious Behaviour of our Indians, and are very apprehenſive of great Danger in their preſent Situation, appears by a Petition to me ſigned by great Numbers of them; which (by Advice of his Majeſty's Council) I laid before you the 10th Inſtant: And with what Contempt you treated the earneſt Entreaties of the Petitioners, and how indecent your Conduct was towards me upon that Occaſion, every one may judge, from your returning it by your Clerk to my Secretary, without further Ceremony, and your reſolving to take no Notice of it in the Minutes of that Day.

For my Part, I could almoſt, at this critical Conjuncture, have forborne (as I have on other Occaſions) ſhewing my Reſentment of the perſonal Incivilities you have offered (if they reſted there) could I, from your general Behaviour, have entertained the leaſt Hopes of awakening you to a due Senſe of your Duty to his Majeſty, and the People you repreſent: But upon looking back into your Proceedings, I find you have treated his Majeſty's Orders to me, ſignified by Letter from his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, not only with as much Indifference, (for they produced no proper Effect from you) but have miſrepreſented the Contents of of them; for ſo far is that Letter from containing Orders to Commodore Warren, that after taking Notice in general of the Nature of the Service that Gentleman is upon, his Majeſty's Pleaſure is thereby ſignified to me, 'That if Mr. Warren ſhall 'apply to me for Aſſiſtance, either 'of Men, Proviſions or Shipping, 'that I ſhould be aiding and aſ- 'ſiſting to him in the moſt effec- 'tual Manner.' And that you might enable me at all Events to anſwer his Majeſty's Commands in ſuch Caſe, was the very Reaſon (as any one might conclude) that induced me to lay that Letter before you: But, as if you was conſcious, your Conduct is deſerving of Reproach, you either wholly ſuppreſs, or miſrepreſent, what are Ingredients in your Proceedings; which your Conſtituents have a Right, not only to be inform'd of, but to remark upon.

And (declining to be more explicit upon Matters of greater Concernment) you have neglected to make Proviſion for the Maintenance of ſuch Priſoners of War as may, from Time to Time, be brought into this Port, or for the Tranſporting them hence; when at this very Time there is a Number of them in the Harbour, which will fall upon our Hands, ſhould the Veſſel lately brought in, be condemned as Prize.

Nor have you provided for the reimburſing Money advanced upon the Faith and Credit of the Government, for Repairs done at the Gariſon of Oſwego, upon the breaking out of the French War, purſuant to my Directions given laſt Summer, by Advice of his Majeſty's Council; which I recommended to you to be provided for the laſt Fall: Nor for the paying what is due for furniſhing Lieutenant Buttler with Neceſſaries for his Paſſage to Oſwego laſt Fall, by Direction of the Commiſſioners for Indian Affairs, purſuant to my Orders given likewiſe by Advice of the Council; concerning both which Articles, Accompts have long ſince been laid before you: But you have adventured to take upon you, the Aſſignment of the Places for erecting Batteries within this City; to direct the Number of Guns to be placed upon them, and to order the Iſſuing out the Gun-powder provided for the Uſe of the Publick, without conſulting me in either Reſpect; which, in Effect, is aſſuming the Adminiſtration of the Government, and wreſting His Majeſty's Authority out of the Hands of his Governor. Thus, from an invincible Untowardneſs on the one Hand, and an inordinate Thirſt of Power on the other, you are become, as it were, a dead Weight againſt the other Branches of the Legiſlature.

You have protracted this Seſſion to a moſt unreaſonable length, for the Advancement of his Majeſty's Honour and Service, or the Credit, Intereſt or Security of the Province, or People you repreſent.

I am therefore conſtrained to put an End to this Seſſion, by your Diſſolution; and you are accordingly diſſolved.
